

Policy and Procedure Name	Privacy Policy and Procedure
Version	3.0
Approved By:	Lucas Newland
Date Implemented:	10.05.2021

1. Purpose and Scope

Brent Street Pty Ltd, in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles has a commitment to ensuring that all reasonable steps are taken to protect the privacy of its consumers and staff. The following policy and procedure outlines how personal information is collected, used, disclosed, stored, destroyed.

The Privacy Policy and Procedure applies to staff, students, employers, clients and potential consumers and is used throughout all aspects of business operations.

The following policy and procedure should be read in conjunction with the “Record Retention Policy and Procedure”, “Engagement and Monitoring of Partners Policy and Procedure”, “Consumer Protection Policy and Procedure” and the organisation’s “Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure”.

2. Abbreviations / Definitions

Brent Street Pty Ltd	Brent Street or Brent Street’s
AVETMISS	The agreed national data standard for the collection, analysis and reporting of vocational education and training information. ¹
Data breach	Where personal information is held by an organisation and is lost or subjected to unauthorised access, use, modification, disclosure or other misuse ² .
Personal information	Types of information that are specific to an individual for example name, address, contact or bank account details. ³
OAIC	Office of the Australian Information Commissioner
Sensitive information	A type of personal information that is sensitive in its nature – for example race or ethnic origin, political opinion, religious belief or affiliation, medical history or criminal record. ⁴

¹ NCVET (2014) Glossary of VET

² Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (2014) Australian Privacy Principles Guidelines

³ Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (2014) Australian Privacy Principles Guidelines

⁴ Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (2014) Australian Privacy Principles Guidelines

3. Policy and Procedure

In order to deliver a high-quality education service Brent Street is required to collect a variety of personal information from both students and staff members. Where personal and sensitive information is collected it is stored, disclosed and destroyed in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles.

The following principles underpin the organisations privacy policy and procedure;

- Personal information is protected by the Privacy Act 1988.
- Personal information stored in Survey Monkey is protected by 'EU_US Privacy Shield Framework'
- Brent Street takes all reasonable steps required to protect and maintain personal and sensitive information.
- A robust governance framework is used to assess, plan, implement and review the protection of personal information against misuse, loss, inappropriate access, and inappropriate disclosure.
- Prior to the collection of personal and sensitive information the individual is told what information is to be collected and stored, the purpose of collection, if this information is to be disclosed to a third party and/or under what circumstances disclosure may occur.
- Once the individual is well informed consent is obtained for the collection of information.
- Personal and sensitive information is used only for the purpose of its collection and by staff who require the information in order to complete their duties.
- Individuals have access to their information when required and without charge.
- Personal information is stored in either an electronic or hardcopy format.
- Security measures such as unique password requirements and restricted file access are used to maintain and protect students' privacy.
- Brent Street will only disclose personal information to a third party where written consent has been obtained from the individual.
- Where Brent Street receives unsolicited information, it is either destroyed or de-identified
- The Privacy policy and procedure is publicly available on the website and a synopsis can be found in the 'Student Handbook'. More information on the Privacy Act can be found at www.privacy.gov.au

3.1 Types of information collected and held

Personal and sensitive information is routinely collected from staff and students for the purpose of either employment or enrolment.

i. Information collected for the purpose of employment

- | | |
|---|---|
| • Name | • Recent professional development activities |
| • Address | • Reference checks |
| • Contact detail | • Vulnerable person checks – National Police Clearance Checks, Working with Children Checks |
| • Emergency contact | • Proof of identity – 100 Point ID check |
| • Employment history | • Superannuation details |
| • Qualifications | • Tax File Number |
| • Verification documentation and evidence | • Insurance documentation |
| • Registration/ Licensing documentation | • Bank details |

Privacy Policy and Procedure

iii. Information collected for the purpose of enrolment in a course

- Name
- Address
- Contact details
- Emergency contact
- Employment history / status
- Citizenship, Residency and Visa status and information
- Language, literacy and numeracy assessments
- Indigenous status
- Proof of identity
- Unique Student Identifier (USI)
- Disability / special need requirements
- Schooling / qualifications completed
- Verification documentation and evidence
- Fee payment information – e.g. credit card information, banking details

3.2 How personal information is collected and stored

Individuals may disclose information over the telephone, via survey monkey, via email, in person and by the completion of relevant forms. Only information disclosed by the individual is used in the collection of information. Prior to the collection of personal information, the individual is told what information is to be collected and stored, the purpose of collection, if this information is to be disclosed to a third party and/or under what circumstances disclosure may occur.

Written and/or verbal consent is obtained prior to collection of personal information and stored appropriately (e.g. in the students/staff file or on the student management system). For individuals under 18 years of age parent/guardian consent is sought/required.

The types of information collected or disclosed by the individual will vary depending on the method of collection, the purpose of that collection and the individual disclosing the information.

Forms used by Brent Street to collect personal information from students include;

- Enquiry forms
- Enrolment forms
- Application for credit transfer form
- Assessment tasks submission forms
- Individualised learning and assessment plans

Documentation used by Brent Street to collect personal information from staff include;

- Application documentation
- Staff details form
- Superannuation documentation
- Competency Record
- Tax file declaration

Information is held in either a locked filing cabinet or electronically on the organisations hard drive or Student Management system. Access to information is limited to personnel with the correct authorisation and is only available to staff for the purpose of collection. Security measures such as unique password requirements and restricted file access are used to maintain and protect students and employee's privacy. Where staff leave the organisation their access to data is removed/deleted.

Where a prospective student completes an online enquiry or payment – information is held in Brent Street's email system, secure cloud server or accounting system and is only available to Brent Street's staff for follow-up or finance team for the purpose of reconciliation & issuance of receipt.

3.3 Use of information

Personal information is only for the purpose for its collection and by staff who require the information in order to complete the tasks associated with their role and function.

- i. Student personal information is used to;
 - Identify individuals enrolled in a Brent Street programs
 - Process application and enrolment requests including credit transfer applications.
 - Process payments for service delivered
 - Monitor student progression and provide individualised support (as required)
 - Ensure recordings of assessment relate to the enrolled student
 - Where relevant, enter student assessment results
 - Identify students enrolled in a training product that is superseded
 - Report data required by government (data provision and contractual data requirements).
 - Monitor and evaluate organisational performance.
 - Ensure certification documentation is awarded to the correct graduate

- ii. Staff personal information is used to;
 - Ensure staff have the skill and knowledge and where relevant correct qualifications, registration/licensing requirements to deliver courses.
 - To mitigate risk and ensure student safety
 - To support human resources processes and systems
 - Manage logistical requirements associated with training and/or assessment
 - Meet superannuation and taxation legislative requirements

Where students do not wish to use their name and contact details on assessment task submission sheets they are able to use their student number.

3.4 Direct Marketing

Brent Street only uses or discloses personal information for direct marketing purposes if consent has been gained. Individuals have the opportunity to be removed from circulation or subscription lists if they choose not to receive organisation related materials.

3.5 Disclosure of personal information

Brent Street only discloses information to a third party where written consent has been gained from the individual. Where possible, data is encrypted so that the student has a level of pseudonymity. Brent Street does not disclose any individual's personal information to overseas recipients.

In accordance with legislative and regulatory requirements Brent Street is regularly required to provide information to State and Commonwealth government departments for the purpose of administration, research and quality assurance⁵. Brent Street does not use or disclose government related identifiers.

⁵ AVETMISS data, quality indicator reporting data and information required to undertake a compliance audit.

3.6 Accessing and seeking correction of personal information

Brent Street acknowledges the rights of individuals to have access to their personal information under the "Freedom of Information Act" and provides opportunities to review this information on request.

Students and staff are encouraged to update their personal information as it changes to maintain the currency and accuracy of records/data. Where Brent Street staff identify/suspect that personal information is inaccurate, out of date, incomplete or misleading they will contact the individual for further clarification and action any rectifications as required. Students are requested to send in the 'Change of Details Form' via email to enrolments@brentstreet.com.au to update personal and/or financial information. Student records in the Student Management System are then updated to reflect the new details (where applicable). There is no charge to an individual who wishes to correct personal information or an associating statement.

3.7 Destruction of personal information

Personal information is stored in the organisations electronically (Student Management System) for a minimum period of 30 years. Hard copy documentation is securely destroyed in accordance with the organisations 'Records Management Policy and Procedure'. Students can contact Brent Street to obtain a copy of the 'Records Management Policy and Procedure'.

3.8 Complaints

Feedback on the organisations compliance with the privacy policy and procedure is encouraged by contacting the Brent Street. Contact details for formal and informal complaints are as follows;

mailto: Tom Redford tom@brentstreet.com.au

A complainant is required to lodge the complaint/appeal in writing. The Operations and Production Manager will acknowledge formal complaints within 7 working days of the complaint being received. Following a comprehensive investigation potential causes of the complaint will be identified; corrective actions taken to eliminate or mitigate the likelihood of future reoccurrence. The complainant will be informed of the outcome of their complaint within 10 days of their complaint being received. If the complainant is dissatisfied with the outcome of their complaint, they can ask for their case to be reviewed by an independent party.

If after the independent review the complainant/appellant is still dissatisfied with the outcome of their complaint/appeal, they can complain to either the Training Ombudsmen in their relevant state or the Australian Skills Quality Authority (where a nationally recognised qualification is being undertaken). Further information can be found on www.asqa.gov.au

If the cause of the complaint is around the collection, use, disclosure or storage of personal information the student can complain to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner. Further information can be found on www.oaic.gov.au

3.9 Governance mechanisms

Brent Street Pty Ltd has a framework in place to ensure its compliance with the Australian Privacy Principles. The following framework underpins and supports the operationalisation of this policy and procedure;

- Risk assessments including privacy impact assessments are undertaken when required.
- Staff receive training on the handling of personal and sensitive information on employment commencement and as changes and/ or amendments occur.
- Staff who regularly handle personal information are provided with supervision and support from the Operations and Production Manager.

Privacy Policy and Procedure

- Performance development and management processes ensure staff have the knowledge and skills required to complete their role requirements
- Brent Street Pty Ltd does not use external agents or third parties to recruit students. If an agent or contractor were to collect personal information on behalf of Brent Street, systematic processes are implemented to monitor compliance and maintain the student's privacy– see 'Engagement and Monitoring of Partners Policy and Procedure'.
- The 'Privacy Policy and Procedure' is publicly available on the website and a synopsis can be found in the 'Students Handbook'.
- The organisation's 'Privacy Policy and Procedure' is reviewed and updated as required. Where changes to the 'Privacy Policy and Procedure' have occurred the latest document version will be placed on the website.
- Brent Street takes all reasonable steps required to protect and maintain personal and sensitive information in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles. If a data breach was to occur the organisation has a systematic approach to managing the critical incident in an open and transparent manner that manages risk effectively. The process for managing a data breach includes conducting a preliminary assessment and investigation, undertaking a risk assessment, notifying all relevant parties and developing an action plan to prevent potential future breaches.
- The organisation's management personnel monitor the effectiveness of the policy/procedure and are actively involved in its review.

4. References

- Australian Skills Quality Authority (2015) "Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015".
- Privacy Act 1988 and the NVETR Act 2011
- Privacy Amendment Act 2012
- Office of the Australian Information Commissioner () Australian Privacy Principles
- Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (2014) Guide to developing an APP privacy policy